Canada Emergency Business Account (CEBA):

CEBA provides interest-free loans of up to $40,000 to eligible small businesses and not-for-profits to help cover their operating costs during a period where their revenues have been temporarily reduced. To qualify, these organizations need to demonstrate they paid between $20,000 to $1.5 million in total payroll in 2019. Repaying the loan on or before December 31, 2022 will result in loan forgiveness of 25% (up to $10,000). Interested businesses should work with their current financial institutions. Rural small businesses can contact Community Futures, which is receiving federal funding to support businesses that don't qualify for the CEBA.

Business Credit Availability Program (BCAP):

The Federal government has established the BCAP to help Canadian businesses obtain financing during the current period of significant uncertainty. The BCAP supports access to financing for businesses in all sectors and regions through financial institutions. These programs are now available at various financial institutions and credit unions.

- Co-Lending Program for Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises:

The Business Development Bank of Canada (BDC) is working with financial institutions to co-lend term loans of up to $6.25 million to small and medium enterprises, for their operational cash flow requirements. Eligibility has been extended to all legal businesses, including cannabis businesses and those in the hospitality sector operating bars and lounges.

- Loan Guarantee for Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises:

Export Development Canada (EDC) is working with financial institutions to issue new operating credit and cash flow term loans of up to $6.25 million to small and medium enterprises.

Government of Canada Canada Emergency Commercial Rent Assistance (CECRA) CECRA will lower rent by 75% for small businesses that have been affected by COVID-19 for April, May, and June. Impacted small business tenants are businesses paying less than $50,000 per month in rent and who have temporarily ceased operations or have experienced at least a 70% drop in pre-COVID revenues. This support will also be available to non-profit and charitable organizations. It is expected that CECRA will be operational by mid-May, and further details will be announced soon.	LEARN MORE >

Provincial Business Taxes

Businesses with a payroll over $500,000 can defer their employer health tax payments until September 30, 2020. Businesses with a payroll under this threshold are already exempt from the tax.

Provincial business tax filing and payment deadlines have also been extended until September 30, 2020 for:

- provincial sales tax (PST);
- municipal and regional district tax;
- tobacco tax;
- motor fuel tax; and
- carbon tax.

The scheduled April 1, 2020 increase to the provincial carbon tax, as well as the new PST registration requirements on e-commerce and the implementation of PST on sweetened carbonated drinks, will be delayed with timing to be reviewed by September 30, 2020.

B.C. Relief for Commercial Property Owners and Tenants

The B.C. government is reducing the school property tax rate for commercial properties to achieve an average 25% reduction in the total property tax bill for most businesses, providing up to $700 million in relief. This enhances the 50% reduction to the provincial school property tax rate that was originally announced for classes 4, 5 and 6 as part of B.C.'s COVID-19 Action Plan.

The date that late payment penalties apply for commercial properties in classes 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 has been postponed to October 1, 2020 to give businesses and landlords more time to pay their reduced property tax without penalty.
